Introduction

The data privacy notice is designed to provide transparency in how the School collects, processes, stores and shares personal information. Everyone has a responsibility for the security of personal data and this is something we as a school take seriously.

The privacy notice should be read in conjunction with our other policies and terms and conditions which make reference to personal data, including our Parent Contract, our Safeguarding Policy, Health & Safety Policies, Acceptable Use Policies and IT Policies.

This privacy notice provides detailed information about how we process personal data.

Please read it carefully and, if you have questions regarding your personal data or its use, please contact the school using the email dataprivacy@sherborneprep.org; by telephone on 01935 812097; or, by post at Data Privacy, Sherborne Preparatory School, Acreman Street, Dorset, DT9 3NY.

For the purposes of the General Data Protection Regulations 2018 ("the GDPR"), Sherborne Preparatory School ("the School") is the "data controller" of personal data about pupils and their parents and/or guardians ("your personal data").

Personal data processed by the School

The School collects personal information about pupils and parents when initially joining the School as well as at different times during the year where it is deemed necessary for administration of the school. The School will not ask for information that is not relevant and all data that is collected will be used for legitimate purposes as deemed by the School.

Personal data processed by the School includes contact details, exam and other assessment results, attendance information, dietary requirements, SEND information, images, audio and video of pupils engaging in School activities (and in relation to parents and/or guardians, may include financial information).

The School may also process sensitive personal data such as ethnic group, religious beliefs and relevant medical information. Your personal data will usually be collected directly from you, but some may be passed to the School by third parties.

We process data in line with applicable law with respect to safeguarding by asking for explicit consent where this is deemed necessary. The School keeps a consent register and this is updated regularly.

Collecting, handling and sharing personal data

The School collects most of the personal data we process directly from the individual concerned (or in the case of pupils, from their parents or guardians). In some cases, we collect data from third parties (for example, referees, previous schools, the Disclosure and Barring Service, or professionals or authorities working with the individual) or from publicly available resources.

Personal data held by us is processed by appropriate members of staff for the purposes for which the data was provided and in allowing them to perform their duties and responsibilities. As a result, different members of staff will have access to different categories of personal data depending upon their role. The School takes appropriate technical and organisational steps to ensure the security of personal data about individuals, including policies around use of technology and devices, and access to school systems.

The School avoids transferring personal data outside of the European Economic Area unless we are satisfied that the personal data will be afforded an equivalent level of protection (e.g. Privacy Shield in the US).

Some of the School's systems are provided by third parties, e.g. iSams, school website, SOCS calendar, Parent Evening System, Google Drive, Microsoft Office 365 or other cloud storage providers.

This is always subject to contractual assurances that personal data will be kept securely and only in accordance with our specific directions.

The School may also share data in the following ways:

take care of your child, as part of our wider legal and regulatory obligations, or in connection with school fees.

- ✓ In the course of school business, the School may also share personal data (including special category personal data such as health or religion where appropriate) with third parties such as the School doctors, the School's professional advisors and relevant authorities (eg the Local Children Safeguarding Board, DBS, NCTL, UK Visas and Immigration, HM Revenue and Customs, Department for Education and Department for Work and Pensions).

Making changes to the data we store

We aim to ensure that all personal data held in relation to an individual is as up to date and accurate as possible. Please notify the school office of any significant changes to important information, such as contact details, held about you. We will then update our records to ensure accuracy.

Consent

Parents, guardians, alumni and pupils themselves can refuse consent for any type of personal data processing as detailed with this policy. Consent can also be withdrawn at any time by emailing dataprivacy@sherborneprep.org. The School will only grant a pupil's wish to withdraw consent if we deem the pupil to be fully aware of the decision being made and we shall always communicate this with parents beforehand. As a school we recognise this to be 12 years of age.

Retaining data for records

We keep your information for as long as we need to in order to educate and look after your child.

We will keep some information after your child has left the school if it is a requirement of the School. In exceptional circumstances we may keep your information for a longer time than usual but we would only do so if we had a good reason and only if we are allowed to do so under data protection law.

We can keep information about you for a very long time or even indefinitely if we need this for historical, research or statistical purposes and is a requirement of the School or for use with the alumni foundation with prior consent.

Who can access your data and data security?

The security measures in place to protect data held electronically are set out in the School's Acceptable Use Policy, which is reviewed annually.

All data on the School's network is protected by anti-virus software that runs on servers and workstations and is updated automatically.

Data on the School's Network is backed-up daily. We retain backup sets for 2 months and so any requests to rectify, update or remove data will be kept within these back up sets until roll over and the data is overwritten.

Personal data held in manual files is only accessible by authorised individuals and, where of a confidential nature, is kept in locked filing cabinets or cupboards when not in use.

Paper-based copies of personal data (or other sensitive or confidential data) are disposed of in a secure manner, by shredding.

Decommissioned IT equipment has data destruction procedures applied prior to its disposal and we use a reputable company in order to do this.

The physical security of the school premises is checked by the appropriate staff regularly and all staff. This is in line with the "Access to the premises" school policy.

The School ensures that prior to the transfer of any personal data to a third party for processing, the third party has appropriate technical and organisational security measures governing the processing to be carried out.

New staff are required to read and understand the IT Acceptable Use Policy as part of their induction as well as understand this policy itself.

Any lapses in data security will be reported to the School at the earliest opportunity by members of School staff.

Accessing your personal information

You have various rights under data protection law to access and understand the personal data we hold about you, and in some cases to ask for it to be erased or amended or for us to stop processing it, but subject to certain exemptions and limitations.

As a school we would also like to make you aware of the following rights you have as a "data subject":

- ✓ The right to be informed
- ✓ The right to access your data
- ✓ The right to rectify any errors
- ✓ The right to be forgotten

You can find out more about all of the above by visiting the Information Commissioner's Office website below:

You have the right to withdraw consent, where given, or otherwise object to receiving generic or fundraising communications. Please be aware however that the school may have another lawful reason to process the personal data in question even without your consent. That reason will usually have been asserted under this Privacy Notice, or may exist under some form of contract or agreement with the individual (e.g. an employment or parent contract)

If you would like to access or amend your personal data, or would like it to be transferred to another person or organisation, or have some other objection to how your personal data is used, please make your request in writing to the school using the following email: dataprivacy@sherborneprep.org

We will respond to any such written requests as soon as is reasonably practicable and in any event within statutory time-limits, which is one month in the case of requests for access to information.

We will be better able to respond quickly to smaller, targeted requests for information. If the request is manifestly excessive or similar to previous requests, we may ask you to reconsider or charge a proportionate fee, but only where Data Protection Law allows it.

You should be aware that certain data is exempt from the right of access. This may include information which identifies other individuals, or information which is subject to legal privilege.
